

The Secrets to Attracting Beautiful Women

By Wayne Ross

Table of Contents

Introduction.....	3
The Secret Revealed.....	4
Attitude-	4
Be Unique-	5
The Singles Bar	5
Looks Do They Matter?.....	7
The Methods: Why They Work	7
The Five Words	8
Case Histories	8
The Verbal Approach	9
The Winner.....	10
Personal Adverts	12
Make Her Love You.....	14
Summing Up and Tips	16
Other places to meet women:.....	16
Riding in a car:.....	16
On the beach:	16

Introduction

First of all, I want to thank you for buying into this manual. I think that the best way to start is to tell you a little bit about myself and inform you why you should listen to me. After all, you should have faith and confidence in my methods. I want to make you a true ladies man, an envy of all other guys who will beg you for your secrets of attracting women. This will happen to you if you follow all my advice.

Nearly a dozen years ago I was divorced, thrown into the singles world and totally unprepared for living the single life. I was 30 years old at the time and had no idea on how to meet and date beautiful girls. For nearly five years I visited the singles bars nearly every week, sometimes three and four times a week. I never met a girl in a bar. I tried, I really tried. I went up to hundreds of girls during that time and was rejected by nearly all of them. A few of them would dance with me, but that's about all. None would give me their phone number or want to date me. I was completely unhappy and miserable and quite willing to admit defeat.

Someone told me about personal ads and how they helped him to meet women. I decided to try. I gave up the bar scene and devoted 100% to the personals. I met many girls through the personals and even wrote two manuals on them. You may have one or both of them. For five years I never went to a bar and stayed with personal ads. But after a period of time, I missed the dancing and music of the bar scene. I knew that many very good looking girls went to the singles bars.

I decided to try again, after all I met many girls through personals and I should have more confidence that would help me in the singles bars. I would try the following Friday night. That Friday night I went to the Holiday Inn, a place I knew would be filled with sexy looking girls. I was right! There were all kinds of pretty women all over the place. But a strange thing took place. My feet froze to the floor. I could not gather enough courage to even approach one girl. I was a complete washout in a bar. I stayed nearly all night, holding up the wall and staring at all the beautiful women that were there. I went home completely miserable that night.

The next night...

I decided to try again the next night. This time I would ask some of the girls to dance, one or two had to say yes. After a couple of drinks I got a little braver and asked ten girls to dance that night. Every one of them said no. I was shocked. I went into the rest room and looked in the mirror. I saw a 42 year old balding man with a pot belly. The women must have laughed at me when I asked them to dance. I felt worse than I had ever felt in my entire life and went home dejected and unhappy. After a few days I stopped feeling sorry for myself and knew there had to be a way for average looking guys to meet good looking girls in bars.

The Secret Revealed

I spent the next nine months interviewing both men and women and how they met each other in bars. I spent the first six months talking to guys and the most unusual methods they used to meet girls in bars. I picked the guys who I saw week after week with the most beautiful girls. They were very helpful, I merely told them I was writing a book and needed their help. I ended up with about thirty different methods of meeting women. I then spent the following three months talking to girls and finding out which of the thirty methods would work best in meeting them.

You would be surprised at how many good looking girls will talk to a guy when they think he is writing a book on how to meet them. The girls picked the best five methods out of the thirty that would work with them. This is what I will tell you in this manual, the very best five methods of meeting girls in the singles bars. There are two secrets to meeting beautiful women and without them, the best methods in the world will not work.

These are: the right attitude and being unique in your approach. Being unique may draw all kinds of girls to you, but you must have the proper attitude to hold on to them. These are so important that I will cover them in detail right now.

Attitude-

This is the most important quality you can possess to be successful with women. Nothing, and I mean nothing, can compare with a superior attitude. You can be the best looking guy in the world, but without a good attitude very few women will end up in your arms. Let me tell you how it helped me.

When I first got divorced twelve years ago, I was a complete washout with women for years. As I told you, I met many girls through personal ads but only learned how to keep them after one of the girls I met told me the following: "Wayne, you're a very nice guy but if you want to meet and hold onto a lot of women, you have to change your attitude. Women do not want a guy who is weak and unsure of himself.

They want someone who is strong and self confident. Be a little hard to get, a little casual and sly but also be tender and caring. Know you can do it, and you will have hundreds of women." Well, from that day on I decided to become an expert on meeting and dating women. I did and you will benefit from my know how and experience, because every method or system I learn about meeting women I will pass on to my readers.

I wrote two manuals on personal ads and am an expert on meeting women through personal ads. When it came to singles bars I forgot my own advice and lost my good attitude and became a washout with women again. But the combination of being unique and the right attitude helped me to meet all kinds of girls in bars and it will help you. There is nothing that will stop you from meeting girls if you are unique and have the right attitude.

Be Unique-

There is not one female in this world who wants a guy who is average. She is always looking for a guy who is different, her knight in shining armor, her dream man, the man who is unique. That's why these methods will work, because they are different and very unique. Any guy can walk up to 100 women and maybe 1 to 10 will show some interest. But I want you to be successful with nearly 100% of the women, and you will nearly approach that when you have the right attitude and are unique in meeting women.

From this day forward, you will eliminate the word average from your life and substitute the word unique. You will become a real ladies man, a man who has dozens of women at his fingertips. You will never be lonely again. You must attain the correct attitude and you will never be without women. No woman seeks the common man. They seek the man who is different, the man who is unique. Every one of these methods are unique and different. That is why they will work. Have faith in me and these methods and you will succeed.

The Singles Bar

The singles bar seems to be the number one place that guys try to meet women. It is also the hardest. With these methods I will make it so easy to meet girls in bars that you will wonder why you ever had trouble before. You will be way ahead of the other guys, because over 90% of guys that frequent a bar are afraid to approach women for fear of getting rejected. There are literally dozens of girls just waiting to meet guys in a bar, but as I said, he should be a guy who is different and very unique and that will be you. More women go to the singles bars than any other place to meet guys. They know no other place to go.

The pity of it is that so many men use or try to use the common old fashioned way of meeting women. Here are some of the methods that most men use to meet women in bars and they definitely are the absolute worst ways to try to meet women. An average guy walks into a bar, has a few drinks and will decide whether or not to approach a girl he finds attractive. He will look around for someone he would like to meet. Here is where most guys would make their mistake. He will see a good looking girl, take a deep breath, cross his fingers, walk up to her and spit out the most average comment that his mind can dream up.

This is the fault of most guys because of their attitude. Your attitude will change when I'm through with you. A poor attitude and a common approach will turn off more girls than an acute case of bad breath. Here is a good example of a poor approach most guys use. Upon spotting a good looking girl alone in a bar, Mr. Average will stumble up to her and after sitting nearby will blurt out, "Can I buy you a drink?" Sometimes he will sit down and ask if he can rap with her. Other times he will act like James Bond, real suave, and send a drink by way of the bartender with the message, "The gentleman at the end of the bar would like to know if the lady would care to join him?" What a bunch of hogwash!

All the examples above are all a bunch of bull. Why? Because all of them are very common and are used by nearly every guy trying to meet girls. When a guy offers to buy a girl a drink, she is probably already drinking one. She probably thinks to herself, "Here is some smart aleck guy who wants to buy me a drink for a couple of dollars, because he doesn't have two cents worth of guts." What he means is, "I'm looking for some company and I'm willing to spend a couple bucks to see if you're available." So why doesn't he say it?

Next, to ask if you can sit down is an assumption that she is alone and will be for the rest of the night. This also puts her in a very awkward position. She is almost forced to say yes. She may not think these exact thoughts, but she will feel like a pick up because you made her feel that way. She will feel cheap because most women do not want to be made to feel like their waiting to be picked up by some guy. Your main mistake was not making her feel special. To send a message with a drink by way of the bartender is another poor method. If she agrees, she is openly admitting she is looking for a partner.

When one of you goes through the motions of swapping tables, you are making the entire place aware that you have just picked her up. This has a tendency to make her feel somewhat cheap. She is also placing herself in a very delicate situation. How is she going to escape from you if she does not like you? You are making her feel obligated. By now, I think you are starting to see my point. In most cases of using the above common methods the odds are that most girls would say, "No, thank you." This is her polite way of saying, "Get lost."

In these approaches you have nothing different to set yourself apart from all the other men in the bar. You have done nothing out of the ordinary and nothing which a dozen other men haven't already tried to do to meet a girl. Remember what I said about being unique. With the common methods, such as the above, her decision will be based entirely on what you look like.

Unless you look like a Greek God or a movie star, you will have very little chance of meeting girls in bars using the normal and common methods. Ask yourself on what other point could she possibly make her decision. Now take a look in the mirror. Can you make it on your looks alone? I can't. Therefore it's mandatory to rely on something other than your looks in order to meet sexy women in the singles bars. You must become appealing to her. You must reverse the normal procedure.

By doing this you will be able to select and attract the really beautiful girls and become truly appealing to them. This is what these methods will do for you. I want to pound this idea into your mind. To attract women you must reverse the original situation. In the beginning you are attracted to her. You want to meet her. Your opening manoeuvres should be to turn the tables so that now she is attracted to you, and wants to meet you. This might seem difficult but it is very very easy.

You can accomplish this by arranging her first thoughts of you to be, "He is unique, different, and very interesting." Once you have arranged this, she will be very pleased to meet you and get to know you. That is what these methods will do for you.

Looks Do They Matter?

This is the most frequent question that guys really wonder about. Do you need to be tall, dark and handsome to attract a beautiful girl? The answer may surprise you. But it's a definite no. With a man, a woman's looks are very important. A woman is more interested in what you're like on the inside than on the outside. But if a woman has no idea about your character or personality, she will be apt to judge you on your looks. In a singles bar, looks are extremely important unless you can attract a woman on something else. That is what these methods are designed to accomplish, attract women by being different and unique.

Let's not fool ourselves. If you happen to be good looking, it will be to your advantage. Good looks do attract a woman's attention. But women are more interested in what a man is like and not really hung up on beautiful faces the way a man is.

If you could gain a woman's interest, it matters very little what you look like and I'll tell you why in the next section.

The Methods: Why They Work

With these methods (that will follow in the next chapters) it will matter very little what you look like, because when you use any of the methods, you will come across to a woman as being unique, interesting, curious and confident.

You will be the kind of man any woman would want to meet and date. You will not be common. You will be different.

Almost every woman I talked to was only willing to settle for the man she was presently dating because no other unique guy was around.

It is so easy to meet a lot of beautiful girls when you are able to be "different" than most guys. That is my job, to make you completely different than most guys.

Every time I write a new manual on meeting women, you will be the first to know. My goal is to make you and me the ladies men we were meant to be. It is about time someone stood up for the average guy. Enough waiting. Let's get on to the actual methods.

The Five Words

This method is a favorite of mine. I use it every chance I get. I love the five words because they immediately get a girl to wondering. The first thing to do is pick the girls you want to meet. Here is what you do. You go into the bar and you sit down and survey the women in the bar. After a little time, you pick the girl or girls you would like to meet. When you are certain about the girl you want to meet, you are ready to make your move. Don't wait too long. If you're like me, the longer you wait, the more reasons you will convince yourself with that it's not a good idea. You walk up to the girl you want to meet and you say, "May I borrow a pencil?".

Usually every girl has a pencil or a pen. If she does not, or if she ignores you then ask the bartender for a pencil. If the bartender does not have a pen or pencil, always have one on you and walk up to some one and pretend you borrowed it. Your only intention is to get a pen or pencil with her attention on it. Now go back to your table and don't pay the slightest attention to her. For the moment, she will be aware that you're in the room. You write a short note to her. I assume you can use a small piece of notebook paper or even a napkin. Carry one of those small spiral notebooks around.

This should become a habit, how are you going to write down all the phone numbers of women you meet if you don't have some paper? Write something like the following: Did you know that I have been sitting here wondering how I could meet you? If you have any suggestions as to how I could meet you without appearing bold, or if I should even try to meet you, please check one of the below. Yes... No... Go to hell... try this... Signed... You give her the note and the pen or pencil and let her decide what to do. Why will this work? Because as I told you before, to meet a lot of women you must be unique and different and not common.

You must admit that this is not a common method. She will be flattered that you went to so much trouble just to try to meet her. You were humorous in your note and women love a guy with a sense of humor. You gave her the chance of either inviting you to join her or tell you to go to hell. This is a choice every woman must have. You have not pushed yourself on her and you have not put her in an awkward situation.

I predict that she will want to meet you because you are not common. If this is different than anything you ever tried before, change your attitude and from this day forward, try all different approaches to meeting women. You will be different from most men, and this is what women are looking for.

Case Histories

Jim "I was willing to try anything when Wayne told me about his new discovery on meeting women in bars. I decided on the borrowing the pen method first. I figured this was pretty easy, or so I thought. I went to the Ramada Inn one Friday night and sat at a table in the corner. I looked around and saw dozens of beautiful girls. I just sat there sipping a drink for nearly an hour before I decided to try anything. I was scared. I finally said, oh what the hell. I saw a sexy looking girl sitting with her girlfriend. I walked up to her and asked to borrow a pen. She looked at me and said, Why?

What do I do now I wondered. I just muttered something about writing a note. She gave me the pen and I started back to my seat, looked back at her, and bumped into some guy at the bar. Boy, everything was going wrong. I went back to my seat and wrote the note. It took me a few minutes to get the courage to bring it back to her table. After I brought it back and gave it to her, I didn't know whether to wait for her answer or go back to my table. I waited and she gave me back the note.

I went back to my table and looked at it. She marked yes. She wanted to meet me. I went over and she invited me to sit down. We talked for a while and she told me that was the most unusual way a guy ever tried to meet her. She couldn't pass up the chance to meet someone with that much ingenuity. We had a good time and I got her phone number before the night was over. We made a date for the following night. I met five more girls in the next three times trying the same method. Thanks Wayne."

The Verbal Approach

This method is a verbal approach of the first method. This is a great method. Stan, a guy who told me about this method, met 70 girls out of the 75 he tried it on. His case history follows. In fact, I'm going to let him describe how this works. Stan "I've been using this approach for a long time. I met 70 girls out of the first 75 that I tried it on. Now it averages about a 99% success rate. Here's how it works. If I see a girl I would like to meet I will be extremely careful not to put her in an embarrassing situation. I will do my best to contact her without anyone in the bar being aware of it. I do not ask any direct questions such as asking if I can sit down.

This may make her very uncomfortable by calling for an answer that she is not prepared to give. I will walk to her table and I will look directly into her eyes. Looking around will only make her think I'm nervous or uncertain. As soon as I reach the chair next to her, I begin speaking. This is what I say to her: "I want to say three things, (1) I doubt that you will be alone very long, you're too pretty. (2) If you are alone, my theory is right... most men are duds. (3) I'd like to know you... if only for ten minutes.

Now I'm going back to my table to stare at my watch and cross my fingers for one minute. If during that time you do nothing, I'll come back and sit down. Or, during that time you can shake your head, very gently, NO." Without giving her a chance to say a word, I go back to my seat. On the first seventy five girls I tried this on, seventy allowed me to return. The said nothing during the one minute. That's the same as inviting me back to their table. The other five shook their head no. This is a great method, try it."

David "Bars scared the hell out of me. I thought it was the worst place in the world to meet women. I decided to give Wayne's methods a chance. I decided on method number two. I promised that I would try this method for two weeks, once each Friday night. If it didn't work, I would try a couple of the other methods and they if didn't work, I would tell Wayne that he was crazy. The first Friday night I went to the Holiday Inn and sat at a table at the rear of the bar. I was literally shocked at the number of good looking girls that were there.

It took me nearly two hours to approach the first girl. I wanted to back out hundreds of times. But I promised Wayne that I would try. I saw a beautiful girl, about 25 or so, with long black hair and a sexy body, across the room from me. She was sitting with a couple girlfriends. I figured that I could try her and when I failed I could tell Wayne I tried it on a dozen girls and failed with them. He would never know. But then I thought to myself, I was alone and had no women. I could at least give this system a fair try.

I kept staring at that girl with the long black hair. She was really sexy. I saw her turn down at least ten guys asking her to dance. This really made me more of a chicken. Ah, what the hell, I said. I walked up to her and blurted out something about her being too pretty to be alone and could I talk to her for five minutes and get to know her. I walked back to my table and forgot to tell her to nod her head if she wanted me to come back.

I walked back to her table and told her that I forgot to tell her to nod her head if she wanted to me to come back. She laughed and thought it was so cute that she asked me to sit down right then and there. I had a really good time with her that night, in fact I dated her about six months and nearly got married. She told everyone about the way we met and how crazy my approach was. I met many other girls the same way and everyone of them thought it was the best approach they ever ran into. In the last six months I met over twenty girls though this approach alone. I'm having the time of my life."

The Winner

You know, a bar can be a very lonely and miserable place. I used to watch guys in bars and here is what I saw: I saw so many guys with sad faces just drinking and drinking, staring into space, looking like they lost their best friend. Most guys looked like hell and they would sit there and do nothing but get drunk. This is the image of a "loser" and this is not what I wanted. This method will impress girls so much that they will think of you as a "winner" and one who wants to get ahead in the world You know what you will be doing? You will be reading in bars. Girls will come up to you like crazy and ask what you're doing. Here is how it worked for me.

I do a lot of work in mail order, so I have dozens of books on the mail order business. I figured I had a lot of books I never read, so why not catch up on them and see if this method works. Every Friday or Saturday when I went to one of the nicer bars like the Holiday Inn or Ramada Inn, I would bring a book to read. Don't worry about the noise and music. After a little while it gets real easy to concentrate and tune out all the noise. So after a little bit of practice, I learned to completely tune out all the noise. I'm sure that anyone can do the same.

Remember what I said about being unique and different? For a man to be reading in a bar was considered very unusual. Girls started coming over to my table and would ask me what I was reading, and why I was doing it in a bar. I met sixty girls in three months using this one method alone. Some girls would even leave their dates and come over and say something like: "My curiosity is killing me. What are you reading and how can you concentrate with all that noise?".

Only girls would come over. I would close my book, introduce myself to the girl, get her name and explain what I was doing. I would explain that I loved to read and hated to waste time and so I was catching up on some of my reading. We would get into a conversation and I would find out whether she had a boyfriend or what kind of relationship she was looking for. You would be surprised. Most women are very honest and love guys who will spend the time to talk to them like human beings and not some sort of sexual conquest.

I would usually get her phone number and make a date for the following night or week. Reading books in bars will make it extremely easy for you to meet a lot of women. Try it. Read some good fiction books or self improvement books and you will meet all kinds of women.

Tom "I really thought Wayne was crazy. Reading in bars? He had to be losing his marbles. But I decided to give it a try. I would try the local Holiday Inn the following Friday night. I would bring a Stephen King book "Pet Cemetery". I would finish it that night. I went into the bar that night, ordered a drink and sat at a table near the band.

I figured that if I could concentrate with all that noise, I would have this down to a fine art. I started reading and within a few minutes was totally involved in reading about a father burying his son in a cemetery where the dead return. Someone tapped me on the shoulder and I literally threw the book in the air. "I'm sorry I scared you." I heard a female voice say. I looked up and saw one of the prettiest girls I had ever seen.

She had long black hair and the nicest smile you could ever imagine. I was speechless and could not make a sound. She picked up my book and looked at me and said, "I love Stephen King. Is this book any good?"

"It's really scary" I managed to say. "Can I borrow it when you're done?", she asked. Of course she could. We became involved in a discussion on Stephen King and his books and movies. We talked into the small hours of the morning and got to know each other very well. I had hit it lucky. Her name was Debbie and we became a twosome and went steady for nine months. It was the happiest nine months of my life. We broke up and I thank Wayne because even if I never fall in love again, I would not give up the nine months for anything in the world. I have met dozens of girls using the very same method and I had a lot of fun and maybe some day I will meet another Debbie."

Ed "I gave up on meeting girls years ago. I was fat and very shy and figured girls would have nothing to do with me. I already read a lot in fact my apartment could qualify as a library. When I heard about this method, I figured it would never work, but I'd rather read in a bar than at home alone. I had always dreamed of being a ladies man someday, surrounded by beautiful sexy girls. This would always be my dream. I went to a place called the Ramada Inn one Friday night. I brought two books with me. Both were on self improvement. One was "Think and Grow Rich" and the other was "Sexual Chemistry".

I sat down and started reading. I was very hard to concentrate because I was nervous and thought everyone was watching and making fun of me. Eventually I was able to keep my mind on what I was doing. A strange thing happened after about an hour. Girls started coming over and asking me how I could read in a bar with all the noise and distractions. I told them I was trying to improve myself and enjoyed reading anywhere and everywhere. I was amazed because the girls were so interested and easy to talk to.

A dozen girls approached me that first night and five of them gave me their phone number. I could never meet that many girls in a year before, now I met them in one night. I am now dating about a dozen pretty girls, have lost 40lbs, and am one of the most popular guys around. I have so much to discuss with these women that approach me when they see me reading. It opens up a whole new topic of conversation. I'm the happiest guy around and now a real ladies man."

Personal Adverts

This is my favorite method because it works so well. As you know, I have written two manuals on personal ads and you may have one or both of them. They will help you with this method. If you don't have either one of them, you can still use this method with great success. I will tell you how. Here is what I did. Whenever I had a lot of letters to answer from girls who answered my ads, I would take them to the bar, along with any pictures I had that went with the letters. I would carry the letters... and pictures (along with writing paper) in a briefcase and take it to the table I was sitting at in the local Holiday Inn or other nice nightclub.

I would stack all of the letters on the table, and lay out as many pictures as I had room for. I would use a notebook for answering the letters, a spiral notebook that I could close if anyone came up to me. I would then start answering the letters. You would not believe the excitement this created. I had a hell of a lot of fun to say nothing of all the beautiful sexy girls I met. I wouldn't trade my experience and the end result for all the money in the world and you won't either once you try this method.

The girls who came into the bar would watch me intently and they could stand it only so long before they would come over to my table and ask me what was going on. Pretty girls would come over to my table (always one at a time) and say something like, "Excuse my but I can't stand this any longer. My curiosity is killing me. What are you doing?".

I would look up and smile, then close my notebook and invite her to sit down so I could explain to her what I was doing. I would introduce myself and also get her name, etc. If the girl was real good looking and most of them were, I would downplay all the letters and pictures and show more of an interest in her. I would tell her the truth about what I was doing and where I got all the letters and pictures, but I would talk about it as little as possible. I would start asking her about herself and her interests.

After talking to her for a while, the girl would usually say something like the following: "Wayne, with all of these girls you know, why would you be interested in me?" I would say: "Jan, I'm looking for the real thing. I'm looking for a special kind of girl. A good girl is hard to find." The girls would keep looking at the letters and pictures. It seemed it was hard for them to take their minds off them. They were right in front of their face. "What about all these girls?", they would usually ask.

I would usually say: "Jan, these girls are, for the most part, very insincere and very far away. I'll never get to see them". You must make the girl think that she may be the special one you're looking for.

This method does something that makes it very easy to get women. It throws them a challenge. They will think that you are something very special if you can get so many girls. A girl who thinks a guy can get a lot of different girls will always show interest in him. You should see why this method will work. In was the fact that I was doing something very unusual and different. You must draw attention to yourself to meet a lot of girls. You will never draw attention to yourself if you are doing the same dull thing a hundred other guys are doing. You must be different.

Put an ad in the paper or a singles magazine to get girls to write to you so you could get some letters to bring to the bar. If you need help in composing an ad, consult my other manuals on Mens-Network.

If a girl thinks you have a lot of other women, she will bend over backwards to try to get you interested in her.

Ken "I have to tell you about the good time I had with this method. I put an ad in my local paper about every month or so. I would usually get about ten replies. One week I got about twenty. I had a hell of a good time both meeting girls from the ads and also using the letters in the bars to meet women. I met so many women because they thought I was a real ladies man and they figured I was a real challenge. I would usually spread all the letters and pictures out at my table and so many women would approach me that I felt like a celebrity surrounded my sexy women. This is the best method I ever heard about on meeting women. Try it, you'll like it."

Frank "I loved girls but never could meet any anywhere. I would go to singles bars nearly every Friday and Saturday night. I would have a terrible time because all I would do would be to stare at all the sexy girls not approaching me because I was afraid of rejection. I would go home when the bar closed, very unhappy and lonely. I would always say to myself, maybe tomorrow, but tomorrow never came. I had to do something because before I knew it, time would take over, and my entire life would be over before I had a chance to meet any girls. I heard about this method from Wayne and decided to give it a try. Wayne helped me put an ad in the paper. I put an ad in four Sundays in a row. I received 7 replies the first week, and about 17 in the next three weeks.

I never believed I could hear from so many. I just wanted to forget about the bar and concentrate on answering the ads at home, but Wayne told me that the purpose of this was to test this method. I decided to take the letters to the bar and answer them. I couldn't believe what happened. I was at a table with my letters spread out, and all kinds of girls came over to me to find out what was up. This was great! I tried this at different bars for about three months and met at least 30 different girls. I still can't believe it."

Make Her Love You

This is very easy. Most guys today, I'm sorry to say have no idea how to treat a woman. They treat girls like a piece of garbage or they act like a doormat to beautiful women and let these women walk all over them. You cannot be a rotten no good, but you cannot be a doormat either. Once you start dating girls, treat them with respect. Treat them like you'd like another guy to treat your mother or sister. Do not, I repeat, do not make a pass at a girl on the first date. She'll think you're different from most men and will want to go out with you again. Act romantic, not sex crazed. Hold her hand in the movie, open the door for her, be polite.

Act like she's precious and sweet. When you bring her home, give her a good night kiss at the door and say "I'll call you sometime." She'll be amazed at being treated like a lady. When you take her out again, still treat her like a lady. Women are dying for romance today and the guy who knows how to provide it is a rare find. She'll let you know when she wants sex. Do not force her. Be patient.

Before long, she'll fall in love with you because you're a man who treats her with respect. Believe me, even a prostitute likes to be treated like a lady. Tell her she is pretty, that she's nice to be with. Women love compliments. Do not ever flirt with other women when you're on a date. The girl you're with should get all your attention. But do not be a doormat either. If she flirts with a lot of men, or talks about all her boyfriends, don't take her out again. If you treat her with respect, she should treat you with respect.

Before long, you'll have so many girls wanting to go out with you, you won't have time for them all. Won't that be nice. Never lead a girl on. If she tells you she is in love with you and you don't feel the same way, be honest with her. Always be honest. Women will appreciate it.

Now the most important piece of advice I can give you on women. If you can accomplish this, nearly every woman you meet will fall in love with you. Always be a friend with the woman you go out with. Let her relax with you, and before long you'll become one of the most likeable guys around.

All women will like you. The girls you go out with will brag to their girlfriends. Girls will be begging you to go out with them because they know that you know how to treat a woman. When a woman is asked why she is deeply in love with her husband or boyfriend, she usually replies, "He is my best friend."

Below I tell you about a well documented method in my books:

This method is also one of my favorites. It was mentioned to me by one of the guys I talked to but I discovered how well it worked quite by accident. This involved making women think you are writing a book or article on women. When I was doing research on this manual, I met dozens of good looking women. I never had to say a word.

I would let the bartender or barmaid know I was writing a manual on meeting women and to let me know if I could interview any that would like to give their opinions. I was literally deluged with girls coming over to my table, wanting to tell me about their thoughts and experiences. I would go to a table, spread out my notes and look like I was intently involved in research. Women love to give their thoughts and experiences and I was never without women at my table asking if I could include them in my book.

It was great. Just let it be known that you are doing research for a book or report on women and you will be surrounded by all kinds of pretty girls.

Jim "I thought this sounded like a great idea and I really wanted to try it. I was attending college and I figured I could say I was doing research for the college paper for an article on meeting girls. The idea caught on like crazy. I would go to a bar and before I knew it, all kinds of girls would come up to me and want to be part of the research. After I met so many, I would get to know them pretty well and get dates with at least half of the girls I talked to. I was surprised because after a lot of the girls got talking to me, they would say what a nice guy I was and they would want to get to know me.

I had a ball and eventually had so many girls, I forgot about the article and just dated all the girls I met. I could safely say I met over 100 girls in six months doing research for an article I was pretending to write."

Summing Up and Tips

This section includes bonus tips, remember that you can leave questions or discuss my guides at the Mens-Network forum. This is what I referred to as "The Circular Method." I tried this and I was amazed at how well it works. You can meet up to twenty extra girls a month using this method. It's a very unique way of advertising for romance.

What you do is simply put circulars on windshields of cars in singles bar's parking lots. I did it this way. I had about 1,000 circulars printed at the local print shop. The circular was worded as follows: "Singles bars are great if you want to stay single. I don't. And I want a girl who doesn't either. So, if you'd like to meet and get together and you are disappointed in what you've had up until now and are ready for a first class man to come into your life and extend you first class treatment, just send a picture and a short note to...."

The best time to do this is between 10 P.M. and 12 A.M. when the parking lots are full. Do it on the weekends or just on ladies night. You can also leave some inside the bar. Just talk to the manager and get his permission. He probably won't care. You can also leave them at anyplace women go. How about laundrymats, supermarkets, etc. Remember what I said about being unique and different. This is why this will work. Women will think it is very unique and will be very curious as to who tried this method to meet women. Try it, you'll be surprised.

Other places to meet women:

Some of the more unusual places to meet women with some unusual approaches are the following:

Riding in a car:

Yes, riding in a car. Almost every guy in the world will run into a pretty girl driving a car. Here is what you do. When you come side to side with a good looking girl in a car, wait until you come to a light, look at her and say something like: "If I were to tell you that you're very pretty, would you get scared and drive away, or would you smile at me and thank me?"

I bet she would respond very positively if you gave her a nice smile and acted very humorous and nice. Just don't stare like a dirty old man and I bet you could meet many girls if you approached them right. Remember, you are being different and unique and this will win many girls over.

On the beach:

You can meet many girls on the beach by being funny and very humorous and nice. Once I met a nice looking girl by doing this: I went right next to a pretty girl at the beach and laid my towel down about two feet from hers. In a few minutes I looked over at her and said, "Would you please move down? I need some room." She looked at me kind of funny and didn't move a muscle.

I told her that I was glad she didn't move because I wanted to meet her, and had to say something. She thought this was very unusual and we talked for hours and went out that very night on a date. The point I'm trying to make is that you can meet girls anywhere if you show a sense of humor. Women love a sense of humor and if you have one or can develop one, it will be your greatest asset.